

MINING & METALS

OVERVIEW

BCLP's international mining and metals practice fields a team of lawyers with experience in all aspects of transactions involving the mining sector. We assist clients in every stage of mining, from initial exploration through to mine development and production and sales to end-buyer matters. We have a deep understanding of the legal and practical challenges that the industry faces when operating in developing or emerging markets.

The mining and metals legal team spans the globe, with lawyers in London, Singapore, Hong Kong SAR, Dubai and multiple locations across the USA, including Denver. We have advised on major sector-related transactions involving opportunities in Africa, Indonesia, Mongolia, North and South America and many other countries around the world.

We have extensive experience in transactions involving all major commodities, including the mining of gold, copper, battery metals, coal, iron ore, uranium, diamonds and gemstones and rare earths.

The BCLP mining and metals team can assist with every aspect of business in the sector, from M&A, investment and financing, project and construction finance, hedging and derivatives transactions, environmental law, leasing and property law, royalty agreements, offtake agreements, export control and sanctions, distribution chain and trade regulation, commodities trading and project and infrastructure construction. We also have a specialist team to help to resolve disputes wherever they arise, from shareholder matters to technical specialists of feedstock.

Our global team of lawyers work together to share knowledge and experience across jurisdictions and time zones, giving clients the benefits of a truly cross-border and comprehensive service.

PRIVATE EQUITY IN MINING

2019

Gold H1

As part of our sponsorship of the Precious Metals Summit taking place in Beaver Creek, Colorado, we have focused a report on Private Equity investments in the gold mining sector for the first half of 2019.

Private equity activity in the mining sector

For the past five years we have produced an annual 'Private Equity in Mining' report, which takes a look at private equity activity in the mining sector. The 2018 report was published in Bloomberg and can be viewed below
